2. For the cases described in the preceding paragraph, the Renter or Driver is responsible for expenses required to collect and repair the rental car. The Company will not refund rental fees already received. If the rental fees are scheduled to be paid later based on a special agreement or in cases in which an unsettled balance remains due to an extension of the rental period or other reasons, the Renter shall pay such fees. Provided, however, that this shall not apply in cases in which the breakdown, etc. is attributable to the reasons specified in Paragraph 3 or 5.
3. In cases in which the breakdown, etc. is attributable to a defect that existed prior to the rental, a new Rental Agreement is deemed to be concluded and the Renter is entitled to receive an alternative rental car from the Company. The terms and conditions for providing an alternative rental car shall apply mutatis mutandis to Article 7, Paragraph 2.
4. If the Renter does not accept the alternative rental car provided as described in the preceding paragraph, the Company shall refund in full the Rental Fees already received by the Renter. This shall also apply when the Company is unable to provide an alternative rental car.

7. For cases subsumed under the preceding paragraph, the Renter shall report this to the Company and shall pay to the Company the Rental Fees corresponding to the period during which the rental car was in use. Provided, however, that it will not apply when the full amount has already been received.
8. Neither the Renter nor the Driver shall be entitled to make any claims against the Company for any damages arising out of the non-availability of the rental car, except for the measures set forth in this Article.

Article 33 (Compensation for Damage or Lost Business Opportunities)

2. Other cases shall be treated according to the Company's non-life insurance policy.
2. In the case exemption grounds of the insurance policy or the compensation system apply, the insurance or compensation specified in Paragraph 1 will not be paid.
3. Damages not covered by insurance or compensation and damages exceeding the amount of insurance or compensation to be paid (the amount of damages calculated by the insurance company according to the insurance policy) in accordance with paragraph 1 shall be borne by the Renter or Driver, unless a special agreement has been made. Provided, however, that damage caused by a disaster designated as that of extreme severity ( "disaster of extreme severity" hereinafter) prescribed in Article 2 of the Act on Special Financial Support to Deal with the Designated Disaster of Extreme Severity (Act No. 150 of 1962) or damage caused by a similar natural disaster, if the damage is related to a rental car that was lost, damaged or otherwise damaged in the area designated as a disaster of extreme severity, the Renter or Driver will not be required to compensate for the damage unless there was intent or gross negligence on the part of the Renter or Driver with respect to the occurrence of the damage.
